Why That Lame Back?

Morning lameness, sharp twinges when bending over, or a dull, all-day back-ache; each is cause enough to suspect kidney trouble. Get after the cause. Help the kidneys.

We Americans get it too hard. We overdo, overeat and neglect our sleep and exercise, and so we are fast becoming a nation of kidney sufferers. 72% more deaths from kidney diseases than in 1890, is the story told by the 1910 census.

If annoyed by a bad back, nervous troubles and irregular kidney or bladder action, modify the bad habits and use Doan's Backache Kidney Pills. Thousands recommend them.

ALLIES WIN IN FIERCE BATTLES ON ALL FRONTS

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 20.—Vienna reported last night that the counter attacks against the Russian offensive have been productive of good results, but Petrograd announced that the fighting continues with the Russians making slight gains. The villages of Novitsa, which has been in the hands of the Huns for some time, is again in Russian possession, the occupants having been cleaned out by the Russian artillery. Berlin claims the Slav line was pierced near Zlocloff, in a German counter attack.

Taking advantage of the slackening of the Russian offensive the Austrians yesterday are reported to have attacked the Italian positions on the Carso plateau, but suffered heavily. At the same time the Italian aviators in large numbers attacked the lines of communication of the enemy, cutting them in several places by dropping bombs on the railroads and roads.

Attacks by the Austrians west of Versich broke down completely and the Italian guns destroyed an Austrian position in the vicinity of the fortified town of Minero.

The British report that the gains made by the Germans the other day south of Lombardzaye, between Nancy and Le Preux, have been regained by the British following some heavy fighting in which the Germans lost severely. German raiders also failed completely to accomplish their objective in the neighborhood of Cherisy.

Paris reports that the French troops have been successful in their efforts to repulse the recent German attacks. South of St. Quentin yesterday the Teutons launched a number of attacks which broke down under the French fire. Bombardments in the vicinity of Craonne and Hurbeth farm were ineffective, and a formidable effort on the part of the Huns to debouch from their positions near Cerny in the Champagne country was broken up by the French artillery, aided by the French fliers.

Further north the Belgians reported that a long range bombardment of their rear positions had been carried on by the Germans, but had produced but little effect.

GERMAN CASUALTY LIST IS OVER FIVE MILLIONS

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

LONDON, Eng., July 20.—Incomplete but official German casualty lists show that for every day during the month of June the German army lost in killed or taken prisoners an average of 2350 men, while the average day's loss during June in killed, wounded and missing, according to the German lists, was 5540 men.

These lists, which are acknowledgedly incomplete and which do not cover all the June operations, show the German losses for the month as follows: Killed in action or died of wounds, 28,319; died of sickness, 3215; prisoners missing, 38,000; wounded, 95,906.

This brings the total losses admitted in the official German lists for the war, up to the end of June, as follows: Killed in action and died of wounds, 1,032,800; died of sickness, 724,960; taken prisoner and missing, 591,966, and wounded, 2,825,583.

No naval casualties are included in these lists, nor are any of the losses incurred in the fighting throughout the German colonies counted.

A careful computation made by the French general staff gives the number of Germans killed in the war up to March last at not less than 1,500,000.

Up to June 30, according to a statement by General Maurice, the number of prisoners taken by the British, exclusive of natives taken in the various colonial spheres, was 117,776. The British lost up to that time in prisoners 51,088 men, including Indian and native troops.

LIGHTNING STRIKES OIL, STARTS DISASTROUS FIRE

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

DRUMRIGHT, Okla., July 20.—Many houses were destroyed and 2000 persons were rendered homeless yesterday when a bolt of lightning struck a huge 55,000-barrel oil tank and exploded it.

CORPORATION MUST OPERATE STREET CARS

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

SEATTLE, Wash., July 20.—The federal courts yesterday issued a writ directing the street car company to operate street cars in this city despite the strike of the operatives which has tied up traffic here for some days. The writ is returnable Monday.

SUFFRAGETTES BITE THE HAND THAT SAVED THEM

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 20.—Sixteen suffrage leaders, who had been arrested and sentenced for picketing the gates of the White House and who had accepted the free pardon which was extended to them by the president, are now threatening to resume their picket tomorrow.

BRITISH SMASH TURKS, ADVANCE TWELVE MILES

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

LONDON, Eng., July 20.—A British column yesterday attacked and defeated the Turks along the Euphrates river, completing an advance of twelve miles in ten days, against strong and well organized resistance from the Ottoman troops. The heat has finally compelled the British commander to halt his progress and rest his men.

COLORADO MINERS TO WALK OUT TOMORROW

DENVER, Colo., July 20.—All efforts on the part of the federal mediators to avert the threatened strike of the miners in the Leadville district have failed and the strike will begin tomorrow morning. Fourteen hundred miners, it is announced, will go out. The government has done everything in its power to prevent the strike, but both the men and the operators are obdurate and refuse to agree on terms.

BRITISH VIOLATED DUTCH NEUTRALITY, IS HAGUE DECISION

THE HAGUE, Netherlands, July 20.—That the attack made on July 16 by the British destroyers upon a fleet of German merchantmen, in which the Germans were either captured, forced ashore or made to run back to Rotterdam, was carried out within the territorial waters of the Netherlands is the conclusion which has been reached by the naval board investigating the circumstances of the engagement. The British destroyers violated Dutch neutrality and acted altogether illegally, say the naval officers.

The faint hope is expressed here that the United States, which once led the neutral nations in protesting against the encroachments of the British navy, will still insist upon protesting against the illegality of the Brit-

AMERICANS FIGHT MEXICAN BANDITS ON TEXAS LINE

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

MISSION, Texas, July 20.—For the first time in many months, active hostilities broke out along the border yesterday and a battle lasting several hours was fought between an American force and a body of Mexicans. A number of Mexicans were killed and wounded, but there were no American casualties.

The fighting took place across the Rio Grande, at the American patrol post at Oja de Agua. The Mexicans, who appeared in force on their own side of the river, opened fire upon the American patrol post at 11 o'clock in the morning, no provocation for the shooting having been given. The American guards sought shelter in temporary rifle pits and returned the fire.

Information as to the attack was telephoned into Mission, which is some eight miles east of Oja de Agua, and from here and from McAllen and other nearby towns, soldiers in automobiles were started out posthaste to the scene of the fighting. These reinforcements for the ones holding their ground at Oja de Agua arrived in time to help force the Mexicans to draw back out of range. The miniature battle was over by 5 o'clock, after some five hundred rounds had been fired by the Americans.

The number of Mexican casualties is not known with certainty, but a number of the attackers were seen to fall.

ALLEGED GERMAN WHITE SLAVER REFUSES TO PLEAD

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 20.—Capt. Max V. Thierbach, former commander of the raider Prinz Eitel Friedrich, who is under indictment on a charge of smuggling and of white slavery, was brought before the federal court here yesterday to plead. The German officer, who had previously demanded that his possession of a naval commission from the kaiser be recognized and that he be held until after the war in order that his trial might take place in Germany before a German court, refused to plead. To all questions put to him by the court he remained mute.

The court directed that a plea of "Not guilty" be entered and set the trial for September.
